CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE BULLETIN

11 December 1963

DAILY BRIEF

Bolivia: Government security forces have virtually sealed off the Catavi tin mining area, and are prepared to move against the dissident miners there should they be ordered to do so.

Regular forces also are being reinforced by armed militia of the powerful national peasants' organization which yesterday strongly endorsed President Paz Estenssoro's moves against the miners.

25X1

As a precaution against violent demonstrations by pro-miner elements in La Paz, all pro-government organizations have been instructed to mount guards at their offices and at certain public buildings.

NOTES

Laos: Right-wing forces continue to advance against Pathet Lao positions in central Laos with suspicious ease. Rightist regular and guerrilla forces reportedly have occupied Lak Sao, a strategic Pathet Lao position only 21 miles from the North Vietnamese border. The token resistance offered by the Pathet Lao in recent engagements in this region and in the Vang Vieng area north of Vientiane has resulted in "losses" which may later be cited as "justification" for a significant Communist counteraction.
